History of Desktop Publishing, Notes Template

Introduction to Google Sites

History of Desktop Publishing Site(to be filled by students)

Example Site: History of the Internet

Site Directions

Over the past few days we have learned about the History Desktop Publishing. Using the notes which you took in class and researching information on various search engines help the class create a Site on the History of Desktop Publishing. This Site will be shared with the class and future iPad Publishing classes.

Find your time era on the Site and publish on!!
