

Project Proposal

Directions: This proposal will help you to start to plan your iPad Publishing project. Now is this time to show off your iPad Publishing skills through creating your own magazine in InDesign! Fill out the steps along the way and the final product will fall nicely into place.

Provide screen shots and answers to the questions below in a Google Doc labeled iPad Publishing, Project Proposal. Below is an example of what your proposal should include.

- Magazine Reference

- This is the cover you will replicate for your own cover and will align with the topic in which your magazine articles will cover.
