Week Outline

April 7 - 11, 2014

Objectives: (InDesign, Design Principles)

1. Students will be able to demonstrate through the creation of an .indd file how photography composition can affect the attraction and usability of a published file.
2. Students will be able to communicate their knowledge of creating attractive published files which focus on photography composition, trends and design principles through class notes, worksheet and a formative assessment.
3. Students will be able to identify through already published files that of poor design and well focused design while determining where the use of photography composition, design principles and trends made a difference in either a positive or negative manner.
