3:2:1 Weekly Exit Slips

At the end of each week you must complete your "Weekly Exit Slip." This slip is a 4x6 index card which will be placed in alphabetical order by your last name in the black box on my desk. At the beginning of each week I will post on the site what I would like you to communicate on the card. Your "Weekly Exit Slips" will count towards your class participation portion of your grade.

- Exit slip #7, Turned in by Friday, April 15th
  3: What are three way in which you use the computer inside and/or outside of this class?
  2: What are two things you are looking forward to doing over April vacation?
  1: In what way did you contribute to class this week?

- Exit slip #6, Turned in by Friday, April 8th
  3: What are three things that you have done in this class which you have never done before?
  2: Provide two things which you like about this class.
  1: In what way did you contribute to class this week?

- Exit slip #6, Turned in by Friday, April 1st
  3: Provide 3 things which you consider unfair in a classroom (not necessarily in this class)
  2: List 2 things which surprised you about this unit (example: how many editing options there are in Photoshop or that Email wasn't always free)
  1: In what way did you contribute to class this week?

- Exit slip #5, Turned in by Friday, March 11th
  3: What would be your three wish list electives courses which are either offered or not offered in this school (example: Photoshop, Electronic Music, Cooking, Engineering)
  2: What are two obstacles you faced in this class this week and how did you overcome them?

1: In what way did you contribute to class this week?

- Exit slip #4, Turned in by Friday, March 4th
  3: Provide 3 keywords which you learned in class this week. (example: lasso, layers, spiders, invisible web, photo enhance…)
  2: What are two ways in which you used the Internet over vacation?
  1: In what way did you contribute to class this week?

- Exit slip #3, Turned in by Friday, February 18th
  3: What are three things about you, which will help you, be successful in this class (example: determined, computer savvy, eager to learn, good listener…)
  2: Provide two words to describe the current unit, which we are working on in this class.
  1: In what way did you contribute to class this week?

- Exit slip #2, Turned in by Friday, February 11th
  3: Provide three words to describe how you work on computers.
     (example: confident, comfortable, nervous, lost)
  2: Name two skills you think are the most essential skills to know to be successful when working on computers in school and in a future job.
  1: In what way did you contribute to class this week?

- Exit slip #1, Turned in by Friday, February 4th
  3: What are three new things you learned in class this week?
  2: What are two ways in which you think your flash drive will come in handy?
  1: In what way did you contribute to class this week?

- Exit slip #practice, Turned in by Friday, January 28th
  3: What are three things you are looking forward to doing in this class?

  2: What are two concerns you had coming into this class?

  1: In what way did you contribute to the class this week?